By all standards 2020 was a year for the history books. As we designed this year's Winter Collection, we were inspired by calm, centering nature vignettes, and nostalgic scenes from simpler times. We present these pieces featuring stalwart pine, peeking woodpeckers, classic poinsettia, and scenic trains with the hope that they evoke comfort and hope in you.

Your support this year has meant the world to us. We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to you and wish you the happiest of holidays!

Be peaceful and well,

— your friends at
